

23 Lynton Road,
KLOOF,
Natal.

30th November, 1964.

Dear Fred,

I certainly did not mean to accuse you. I merely suffered from the vanity of an author who does not see his epoch-making work in the windows. Like you, I am glad that the publication has been so successful, and I hope the success will continue.

I have met many people who still intend to get the book, and I hope they adhere to their intentions!

Yours sincerely,