Dear Phyllis Naidoo,

I was pleased to get your note on the copy letter from your brother-in-law, and the latter greatly enlightened and cheered me at understanding more fully what you and your husband have been able to achieve in spite of all discouragements, obstacles, etc. I pray God, now, by the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ that you will be able to go ahead, provide for your children properly, and do all necessary things without hindrance. As we know, "The Lord is able", the only lack is with and within ourselves. May He keep strong and virile your faith and give you the victory to His honour and glory.

I, myself, seem to be surrounded by a few negative elements, obstacles, complications (most or all of which could be avoided if people were less money-loving or fearful) but I have to TRY to be patient (the hardest thing of all for me) because of my two little grandsons (3 and 7 years). Only my faith, feeble as it may be, has kept me going, too, so I ask the Lord each day almost to keep my faith going and not let it vanish as I don't see much, if any, around me ! All they care about here is money, and not too fussy how they get it apparently ! With much love and blessings from the Lord (and kisses from Penny the ex-drug-addict cat who has won

16 prizes in show (a first in Geneva), I remain, Frierlily,

Edith BP
