Hello Sue,

How nice to have received a letter from you. You forgot to put your name or also address but we all guess that only you could write such a charming letter. Wasn't get me wrong I don't mean Rhonda's isn't smart too, but there's just that special something one can't explain.

Thank you very very much for everything and the welcome news, we've really been longing to hear from you people but we forgot to take addresses. I only got Rhonda's so she's sending it to Rhonda O.K.? The Brauns & Meyers families
