Dear Chris,

I am sorry about the delay in following up our telephone conversation of the other day.

This is just to confirm that the issue of REALITY which will carry your series of articles will have a deadline of the end of January -- which means it will be the March, 1988 issue. If we could get the material during the last week of January it would make life a bit easier at this end, but not vitally so.

We would be responsible for producing the editorials, but would limit leave the rest to you. Our articles are usually within the 2 to 3 thousand words but this, again, is not a hard-and-fast rule.

If you have any photographs or other illustrations which could be used as a cover or in the text, these would be very welcome.

Yours sincerely,

Peter Brown

P.M. Brown.
