Dear Robin,

I have had a letter from Christopher Saunders asking if he can have first choice of a review on a new Hanlon book which he says you told him you intended sending to us. At the same time he told me that you were also intending to send us a review of Lelyveld.

I am writing because his letter suggested that the reviews should already have reached us and I thought you should know that, if they have already been sent, they have not got here.

If they haven't yet been sent we would very much like Lelyveld. I have told Christopher Saunders that we would be generous and let him have first choice of Hanlon!

Not much good news from here, although another good judgement from the Natal Bench yesterday. We will know on Monday whether it overrides new press regulations promulgated yesterday morning which suggest that two articles already set in print for the next ^{September, 1986.} REALITY may have to be withdrawn. It is already ^{running} almost a month ~~late~~ ^{behind} what with one thing and another.

I saw Cheryl and John on Saturday. As you probably know she has has gone to the Black Sash in Grahamstown while he is at Ngoye. It seems a strange arrangement but they talk about him getting a job in Grahamstown next year. Not easy, I would think.

Regards,

AC
