Mr. Joe Alfery,

Bophuthatswana.

Dear Joe,
This is a groveller's letter.

The reason for the grovelling is that we have only used one of your photographs, and not the one you suggested for the cover. We tried it out on some guinea-pigs like Michael Dyer and they didn't immediately get the message we were hoping they would, so we decided to use something more obvious, as you will see when you get your copy. The crowd scenes we thought might have the opposite effect to the one we intended, so we funk'd them too.

My apologies for all this after the trouble you went to to get them to us.

I hope Mrs. Alfery Senior got to you without incident and that she doesn't use her car as a battering-ram like last time she was with you.

Our love to you all.

Pete
