Dear Professor Olivier,

I am sending you a copy of the most recent REALITY which, as you will see, has an article from Sheena Duncan telling about the disappointment she has experienced as she has seen the unfolding of the new policies regarding influx control.

She feels that many of the hopes expressed by you in your article, and which she obviously shared at the time, have been dashed.

If you feel you would like to respond to her, we will be happy to carry on the discussion in REALITY.

With best wishes.

Yours sincerely,
