Dear Lawrence,

Many thanks for your letter which arrived earlier this week.

We would definitely like you to do the review and the end of May would be fine as far as we are concerned. I just hope the book gets to you in good time.

As far as length goes two to three REALITY pages would suit us very well. As far as content goes, would it be possible to say something about ~~the~~ the futility of the "security" approach to the solution of our problems as seen from the outside ~~wh~~ somebody as familiar as you are with the inside of the country ?

I have just remembered that you may well have seen Tony by the time this reaches you. Perhaps he had a spare copy of the book with him !

Regards,

Alan Brown
