12th February 1952

Sir/Madam,

In response to your letter of the 8th February 1952 under cover of which you submitted a copy of the constitution of your company/society/association, I have to inform you that any entertainment promoted by your company/society/association will be exempted from the payment of entertainments duty as provided in section 2 (2) (e) of Ordinance 9 of 1920, as inserted by section 1 (a) of Ordinance 36 of 1950, provided that the profits of such entertainment are devoted solely to the purposes or objects of your company/society/association.

The assurance contained in this letter will automatically cease upon any change in the constitution of your company/society/association which has the effect of amending or varying its purposes or objects or which relates to the distribution of any profits made, whereupon, if exemption from the payment of entertainments duty is claimed, fresh application should be submitted to me accompanied by a copy of the amended constitution.

Nothing contained in this letter is to be construed as applying to any entertainment promoted by your company/society/association if the profits are to be devoted to any other purposes or objects than those mentioned in the first paragraph of this letter, but if exemption from duty is claimed in respect of such entertainment a special application should be made disclosing all the relevant facts of the case. This exemption shall not apply in the case of gym-khanas or anything similar to horse racing.

I am,

Your obedient servant,

Socias horner
