Dear Mr. Immelman,

Very many thanks for your letter of July 4th with its report on the book.

It sounds as if Mr. van der Horst has done an excellent job and I am most grateful for the time and trouble you and he have taken. In addition, as you say, the price for the work which Mr. van der Horst has set is extremely low.

Since receiving your letter I have given considerable thought to the question of repairing the binding and have decided against it. The reason for this decision is that I am anxious to preserve the original character of the book as much as possible, even if that does mean that its appearance is a little tatty. Nevertheless, I am very appreciative of Mr. van der Horst having made the offer.

Could you let me know what I should do about payment? Should the cheque be made out to Mr. van der Horst personally and sent to him c/o the Library, or should I pay in some other way?

Yours sincerely,

P.M.Brown.
