Dear George,

It is high time I wrote to you to thank you for your work collecting the money for the fund for Cromwell.

When you have the time, could you let me know how much was collected and who gave it? Do you think we should try to do the same for him at the end of this year?

If you do, I could draft another letter and send it to those who gave last time. Would you, in that event, be prepared to act as the clearing-house again?

Best wishes to both of you.

Yours,

Peter Brown
