Dear Peter,

Some weeks back my old dad told me that for the second year running he had sent you a Christmas card and it had been returned by the GPO. He wondered if you no longer lived in Pietermaritzburg. I said that I had from time to time caught sight of you and that I was sure you were still near here. I suggested that he should send the card to me so that you would know that he had thought of you. I have since checked with Peter Kerchhoff who tells me that you are at Hilton so I am sending you this belated greeting.

Dad should be down later on and although he will not be spending many days with me personally he may get a chance to give you a ring. He is now 75 and has 6 grandchildren to keep him young. He is mainly coming to get to know the Natal ones!

Hope you and your family keep well.

Yours sincerely,
