Dear Mewa,

Here are the promised copies of my speech at the memorial celebrations. I am afraid it is a cress between what I said and what I meant to say.

As I told you, I suddenly discovered when I get up to talk that I had left my specs at Kleef and couldn't see a note. So what I have done is combine my notes with other things I seem to remember saying. I hope the result isn't too much of a ~~XXX~~ let-down.

In spite of the wind and heat and having to make a speech I enjoyed the day very much. It was marvellous seeing so many old friends again even if, in your and Ela's cases, your appearances had to be spasmodic. And that was obviously far from getting you dewa and, I am sure, is not likely to.

My warm regards to both of you and the children and to Mrs. Gandhi. I hope she has get over her brush with the Durban traffic.

Regards,
