Dear Mrs. Paap,

Thank you for your letter about the Bowler reproductions.

They are supposed to be a Christmas present for my wife so I had not opened the parcel, hoping I could leave it as it was and just cover it with Christmas paper! After receiving your letter I opened it and took it to the local picture expert to assess the damage, if any. I am afraid he says the paper has cracked, and so I have put them back in the same parcel and will post them to the printers in the next few days. I had some difficulty in getting them back into the wrapping, so I may have done further damage to them, but hope not.

Could you possibly send the replacements addressed to me c/o Mr. Simon Roberts, Tomlinson, Francis and Co., 20, Chancery Lane, Pietermaritzburg?

With many thanks,

Yours sincerely,

P.M. Brown.
