Sir,

I have no wish to enter into a public dispute with Chief Buthelezi over what happened at Graaf-Reinet, yet nothing contained in his letter to you of May 16th persuades me that my assessment of what happened on that day, and what it suggests for the future, might not be right.

From the reactions to it one would think that my article in REALITY on Robert Sobukwe's funeral was hostile to Chief Buthelezi. As it so happens it was not.

Yours faithfully,
