Dear Neil,

I went to Durban last week and saw both Sandile Ngcobo and Richard Lyster about the matter about which you phoned.

I am sure you know all this, but I gather there is a case due next week in which the issue of the right of detainees to be visited will be decided, and that there are two in January relating to the question of detainee's treatment by your friend.

It seems to me that, as far as he is concerned, the quickest way of nailing him is if he is found guilty in these cases, and that that would be the time to try to publicise the situation which you told me about.

Yours,

Neil
