Dear Peter and Phoebe

Sakunthalay and I feel that we have been working too hard and have not seen you for some time. Will you therefore not break some bread with us at our house at say, 7 p.m. on Sunday, 5th April 1981. The day following is Founder's Day.

We shall be grateful if you will say 'yes' and look forward to seeing you again.

Yours,

1. Wink, wink! see the cry for sympathy in the opening sentence! Sly that, what!
2. As I shall be away for the next fortnight, can you please phone Mrs Emcy Rawatlall at Nos 328421 or 328422 to convey your acceptance. Ha, ha, leaves you no choice, does it!
