Dear Peter,

We were very delighted to receive your letter and support during our worrying ordeal when Duma was in detention. He was released, as you know, after four nights in solitary confinement. In the course of their interrogations they often kept him standing from 9.00 a.m. to 2.00p.m.

With your experience of this kind of life I am sure you know what it means for a young chap to go through this. It would be nice to see you some day.

With warm greetings and every good wish in the new year,

Yours sincerely

Simon
