Mr. Elliot Mngadi,
P.O.Box 43,
Ezakeni.

Dear Elliot, call

My/came through so late last night -- after 8 p.m. -- that the exchange said there was no reply.

What I was phoning about was to ask if any other Sunday in September would suit you for the meeting to follow-up Grahamstown. The reason we might have to change is that Alan is now going to America. He was supposed to phone me on Monday to tell me when he would be available but he did not, and when I phoned him last night, he told me he did not know his plans yet. He will let me know as soon as they are finalised.

All I wanted to tell you is that there might have to be a change, and to find out what other days would suit you.

I will be in touch with you as soon as I hear from Alan.

I hope your wife is better.

Yours sincerely,

MEI
