Dear Peter

Thank you so much for your letter of 10 May and I do appreciate your shared sense of shock at the election results. The "smear and fear" campaign worked well for the Nats and it is a commentary on the gullibility of voters that they can actually fall for that sort of propaganda.

I don't have any particular plans at present but one of the things I plan to do is to come and have a good, long chat to you and I certainly do agree with you that things are going to get rougher in the next few years. I am sure I can learn a lot from you because you have been able to see a lot of what has been going on over these last years.

Warmest regards

Graham.
