My Dear Mr and Mrs Brown

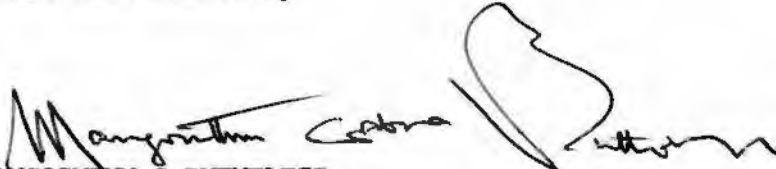

Thanks for your letter of the 18th of April. It was gracious of you to take the trouble to write such a kind letter to me.

We were all shattered at the passing away of a revered and loved friend not least your good selves. So honestly think that you need have no qualms of any sort about your wish not having been fulfilled. I still remember with great warmth my visit to your home some years ago.

I was so touched by the whole memorial service and the participation in it by all the friends of Alan. It was like a reunion of all his friends. It was a send-off which I feel certain he would himself have relished.

With much love to both of you.

Yours most sincerely

MANGOSUTHU G BUTHELEZI
