

Subject: fortune

Date: Fri, 14 Jul 2000 03:32:59 EDT

From: Jrvigne@aol.com

To: magnus@intranet.ca

I only knew of Hilmar's membership when he let something slip during our Lesotho visit. He was a pleasant young coloured man who lived in her Sea Point flat with Joan Bloch, a splendid and much loved cockney lady in the LP who died of cancer in the late 1960s. No idea who recruited Hilmar or what he did. I hadn't heard of John Mills until you sent me the HM statement. I asked AL about him when he rang.

The only person whom I can think of who would know about Operation Damp Squib is Tim Holmes (Lusaka). He revisited Carolina, where he was incarcerated for a few days, when in SA on a visit in the mid-1990s. Someone should put it on paper, tho'it was rather a farce.

If the 'silly' wedding doesn't happen and you have to part with a smaller cheque shall we see you in SA? Blessings to the happy couple. When is it to be?

Randolph