

Author
pallid / 2/43

2

LOUISVILLE, KY.
COURIER-JOURNAL
D. 226,742 — S. 333,011
LOUISVILLE METROPOLITAN AREA

JAN 14 1948

Instrument of Thy Peace: By Alan Paton. 124 pp. Seabury $3.50—The renowned novelist and president of the South African Liberal Party reflects on the problems posed by Hippies (in London), unbelief and of course the racial divisions of his own country, in the light of Biblical injunctions and of the example set by St. Francis of Assisi. He quotes from "The Hound of Heaven" and adds 19 original prayers.