Mr Alan Paton,
23 Lynton Road,
KLOOF,
Natal.

Dear Alan,

I was glad to have news of you from John Burn Wood and from your letter of 6 November.

Your biography of Archbishop Clayton sounds interesting. Do I take it that you are writing this for another publisher? If not, we should certainly like to see it. It is not, I think, as intrinsically interesting a publication project as the biography of Botha, but the snippets you give us of Clayton's life are inviting.

x With our compliments we are sending you a copy of WHERE WE STAND which we published some time back (and which did not sell as well as we had hoped). If, as is likely, you already have a copy, please dispose of it to someone likely to appreciate it.

Human sources for a biography of Botha are dying off and it will not be much longer before there are none left. It seems a pity therefore to delay the biography. Of documented sources there are of course plenty.

Anyway it is good to reopen our correspondence. We are interested in anything you write - even letters!

With good wishes to you both,

Yours sincerely,

David
