Dear Basil,

Thank you very much for your letter of July 13th. which is very helpful. I share your admiration for Cleyton, but I think it would be better for me to send you a copy of what I have written about the first Peter Ainslee Lecture. If you think it is permissible as my point of view that will be fine, but if you feel that it is objectively inaccurate then perhaps you would tell me.

Your contrast of the presidencies of Derbyshire and Cleyton is very much to the point. Do you by any chance know when Cleyton became President of the Christian Council, and for which years he held the office?

I am very anxious to get the book finished, but I must admit that the times are such that there are incessant calls upon me.

Yours ever,
