Northumberland.

Dear Lady Howick,

Thank you for your letter of November 28th.

The holiday could not have been in August 1957 because the Archbishop died on March 7th. of that year. In 1956 he took his holiday from July 16th to August 11th. and it was for part of that time that he stayed with you. If you don't find any further clues it doesn't matter.

Yours sincerely,

Alan Paton
