My dear Alan,

First of all many congratulations on your American Professorship. Although this will be very bad for your ego, it will be very good for America!

I am much looking forward to receiving the typescript and I will read it as soon as I possibly can and then send it on to the various people you mention.

About the 11 o'clock attendance at Christ the King, I would have thought 800 is a much nearer figure than 1,500 though, of course, on a very special occasion (e.g. the Consecration of a Bishop) it would rise to that, and on Good Friday for the Three Hours when all the children were packed tight it would probably be not far short of 1,500. But I am as certain as I can be that on a normal Sunday it would never be more than 800.

Yours ever,

+ Trevor
