My dear Alan,

Many thanks for your letter of the 1st January. I am very glad that you are going to publish the book in South Africa, for obvious reasons. I imagine that David Philip will have some link with one or other of the English publishers but if there is anything I can do you know you have only to ask. I, personally, am sure that the book will be recognised for what it is but I still feel that none of the titles you suggested is sufficiently exciting. I really have chewed over this matter of a title and I believe that if something 'prophetic' could be found and if you could then sub-title the book 'The Life of George Clayton, Atchbishop of Cape Town' this would be the right style. If I have any inspiration I shall write to you at once.

I am greatly looking forward to reading the full text.

Yours ever,

+ Trevor
