Dear Beyt,

Thank you for your letter of July 14th. It seems as though I must accept the fact that Calder Marshall will not be helpful. I did hear that the people in Cape Town were not keen on his writing the biography. However I am glad that Dewey of the S.P.C.K. is going to return all the available material to Robert Capetown.

It was very good of you to offer to do more if you could, but I don't think there anything more that can be done.

I am going to Johannesburg in a few days time, and will not see you of course, but you may be sure that I shall see you on your return.

Yours ever,
