Dear Sir,

In your issue of March 1972 the Rev. Alistair MacGregor mentions the writing of the biography of Archbishop Cleyton, and asks certain questions that arise from it. I should like to inform him through the medium of "Seek" that the biography of the Archbishop is nearly three-quarters done and that I am still hoping to finish it in the next two or three months. I have consulted many of the people who knew him and I would be glad to hear from Mr. MacGregor himself.

Yours faithfully,

Alan Paton
