Gables Way,
Rondebosch.

Dear Julie,

I am sending you today a cheque for R60.00. I think it would be nicer for you to send it to your friend than for me to do so.

I received the notes safely thank you. I am sure they are going to be all right, but I have not really had a chance to look at them yet.

I am going to Pietermaritzburg today to finish my researches, and then I shall start writing. I am sorry I shall not see you in Durban, but I am going up to the Drakensberg on November 19th. which will be our first holiday for some time. It won't really be a holiday because I am going to do some writing there.

You will certainly see the finished product, because I shall be sending you a copy. It was also a pleasure for me to work with you, and I wish you success and happiness in your life. God bless you too.

Yours sincerely,

Alan Paton
