Dear Canon Maycock,

Thank you for your letter of December 12th. Geoffrey's reaction to noise in church was proverbial. Sometimes he even shocked some of the clergy by the irritation which he displayed, even at the altar. That is one of the weaknesses which make him so human a person.

Thank you for your good wishes: I should tell you that I married again in January 1969. The person I married was the secretary mentioned in Section 40 of "Kontakian For You Departed", and it was a very wise and happy step for me to take.

Yours sincerely,

Alan Paton
