Dear Redvers,

Can you tell me if Geoffrey belonged to any club in Johannesburg? In Capetown he belonged to the "Owls' Club" and also to a men's club which I am finding out about. He was, as you know, very popular with the Rotarians in Chesterfield, though again I do not know if he was a Rotarian himself. It is strange how these questions keep on coming up long after the chapter has been written. I have now reached 1949/50, but I find all these recent events very distracting.

kindest regards to you and Mrs. Rouse,

Yours ever

Is there any way of finding out the number of clergy in the diocese JHB in 1934 when G. arrived?

Alan Paton

- No. of incumbents (white)
- Ditto black
- No. of other priests
- No. of women workers.

There was also an Indian priest, Bernard Sigmoney and no coloured priest that I know of
