Dear Bishop,

Thank you for your letter of May 10th. I was interested to hear that the Bishop of Oxford gave Clayton a pure alphe for his speech. In the meantime I am left with two possibilities: one is that Clayton was in charge of one of the sub-committees of Committee 1, and the other is that he was the chairman of the drafting committee of Committee 1. Meanwhile I am grateful to you for writing to Bishop Wend.

Yours sincerely

Alan Paton
