

P. O. ANERLEY,
South Coast,
Natal,
South Africa.

26th March, 1949.

Mrs. J. L. de Villiers,
29 Vossins Street,
AMSTERDAM,
Holland.

Dear Mrs. de Villiers,

As requested I am sending this letter to you in Amsterdam and I can only suppose that you and Miss Helene Oosthuisen are one and the same person. I suppose also that you wrote the review in "Die Burger", which review was as you may or may not know bitterly attacked in the readers' column shortly afterwards.

I would cheerfully allow you to translate the book but this is already being done by Dr. Moorrees of Capetown, but I might add that as yet no publisher has been discovered.

Yours very sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to be the initials "P.A." or similar, written in a cursive style.