Dear Mr. Strijdom,

I must apologise to you for not having answered earlier your letter of June 23 and for not having thanked you for your message of appreciation.

The book is already being translated into Afrikaans by Dr. D. O. Moorrees of Box 1045 Capetown, who started on this work some months ago, and I am therefore sorry that I am unable to do what you ask, but I appreciate your kind offer and send you my best wishes.

Yours sincerely,
