Dear Mr. Scribner,

On the eve of his departure for Overseas Mr. Paton asked me to send you a copy of a letter received from Rose Richter which I am accordingly doing. As he made no mention of my writing to Pan Verlag, perhaps he would prefer that you deal with them.

When Mr. Paton arrives in New York you must worry him to let you have his poems. They are, I think, unusual, and I am sure would make an appeal to the literary-minded. But don't tell him I advised you!

Yours sincerely,
