Dear Dr. Todeshhini,

Thank you for your letter addressed to my husband and for your appreciation of his book which we greatly esteem.

Mr. Paton is at present in the United States and I am thus answering your letter on his behalf. In regard to an Italian translation of "Cry, the Beloved Country" I think your best course would be to write direct to Mr. Paton's publishers in New York as they are handling translations. The Address is:-

Messrs. Charles Scribner's Sons, 597 Fifth Avenue, New York 17.

Wishing you success,

Yours sincerely,
