Dear Mr. Paton,

Rev. Fr. James. C. M. M. the Editor of the Zulu weekly "Um-Afrika", published at Mariannhill values very highly your book "Cry, the Beloved Country" and would like to have your permission to have the book translated into Zulu so that it might appear in instalments in "Um-Afrika".

As Africans who have read the English version as so gripped by it he feels sure that it would be much appreciated by those who read Zulu, and moreover its clear warnings against the dangers of town life would do them a great deal of good.

Just at present I am in Natal trying to pick up ~~what~~ what I can of the Zulu language.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Oliver Clark, O.R.
