DEBORAH KERR
IN
TEA AND SYMPATHY

April 6, 1954

Mr. Alan Paton
c/o Dr. E. J. Stringer
114 1/2 South 4th Street
Columbus, Miss.

Dear Mr. Paton:

I am enclosing some correspondence which I had with Robert Ardrey in Los Angeles, and about which I intended to go into more detail while you were here, and since Annie Laurie tells me you are to be in Los Angeles for a couple of days I wanted you to meet him if your schedule will permit and if you are so inclined.

While I have not met Mr. Ardrey personally, I have talked with him on the telephone and was very pleased and delighted with his appreciation of THE PHALAROPE. Harold Freedman, whom you know and who is a great admirer of yours, suggested Mr. Ardrey initially.

Although Mr. Ardrey is hesitant to undertake the dramatization, I know a talk with you might clarify some of his doubts. Mr. Ardrey's address is 236 Tigertail Road, West Los Angeles 49, Calif., and his telephone is Arizona 3-0161.

I have given Mr. Ardrey your address with Mr. Miller.

We are looking forward to seeing you on your return.

Sincerely,
Mary K. Frank
