JOHANNESBURG.

Dear Mr. Kennedy,

I do not feel at the moment able to give away the MS of CRY, THE BELOVED COUNTRY. I am certainly willing to lend it for the time being to the Johannesburg Public Library.

I note that you have copies of my novel in English, Dutch, and Swedish. If you would care to acquire copies in other languages, I have some which I could donate to the library.

Yours truly

Alan Paton.
