KLOOF,

Dear Mr. Paton,

May I trouble you again in connection with translations of your novels? It has recently come to my notice that there are translations of "Cry the beloved country" in Indonesian, Norwegian, Polish, Yugoslav and Japanese. Can you please let me know where we can obtain copies, so that we may make our set complete?

Iceland

As regards Too late the phalarope, we have the following translations: Finnish, French, Danish, Dutch, Portuguese, Norwegian, German and Swedish. Have there been any other translations besides these, and if so, are they still available?

Zulu Polish

I shall be most grateful for your help in this matter.

Yours sincerely,

R.F. KENNEDY.
