Dear Mrs. Paton:

In the absence of Alan -- I understand that he won't be back till after September 20th. -- I am sending you occasionally important reviews: today, a review of Sterling North in the World-Telegram. One could hardly ask for a better review.

At the same time, I am enclosing a letter from Mr. David Markowitz, with some poems he has written after reading The Phalarope.

In haste, but with many good wishes,

Yours sincerely,
John Wheelock
