

St. Luke's Episcopal Church

North Main at Fourth Street
Jamestown, New York

Ans 10. V. 54

March 2nd
1954

Mr. Alan Paton
The Readers' Digest
Pleasantville, New York

Dear Mr. Paton:

I am enclosing a copy of a sermon which contains reference to your book, "Too Late the Phalarope". I have marked the pages in which reference is made to your book.

This sermon was in preparation when I became ill with a touch of "flu" and had to remain in bed for a few days. During my illness I had the opportunity to read the condensed version of your book and to incorporate some of the thought into this sermon.

I want to express my deep personal thanks to you for writing what I consider to be one of the greatest contributions to the needs of our time. I am sure that those who read your book will gain a deep understanding of their own needs and the needs of others.

I trust that I have interpreted what you had in mind properly and that you will accept my sincere appreciation for what your book has added to the enclosed sermon.

Faithfully yours,

George J. O'Pray

Rector