Dear Irita,

Many thanks for your letter of June 22 and the congratulations contained therein.

You are quite right in your interpretation of the meaning of the title. I would add only one thing to it and that is that the true explanation must be looked for at a deeper unconscious level. Of many of these mysteries of parent/child relationships we know only too well that something has happened, but it is almost impossible to say what it is.

Yes, I shall send you a brief autobiographical sketch. Who will take pictures of me, I do not know. Do you want me to bring out a photographer from Durban? Dear me, you have no idea what great sacrifices you are demanding.

I am very angry with my friend for not turning up. I told him you were the nicest woman in America, and I thought he would have had the grace to call on you.

I share your hope that the book will be a great success.

Yours very sincerely,
