Alan Paton: HOFMEYR

Dear Professor Italiaander,

We are pleased to give you permission to publish in translation a few pages from HOFMEYR, and note that the extracts will probably be taken from the chapter 'Champion of the Voiceless'. May we have a copy of the year book when it is published? We are making no charge for the permission.

In order to save time, we have asked Mr J.L. Williams of our London office to post a copy of the book to you from stock they are holding, and you should receive it some time next week.

We are telling Mr Paton of your request: we are sure he will be interested.

Yours sincerely,

Owen Williams
