HOFMEYR

Dear Alan,

I have had to compile something for our Autumn List 1964. I am not satisfied with it but you may like to make use of some of it for the blurb I asked you to write.

Your turn to criticise my authorship!

I have just received your telegram. I shall be sending off to you on Monday a whole lot more queries, which will take us to the end of the book. Progress has been good on it this week and I have at this moment only 60 pages to go.

Your itinerary would be helpful. I do hope that we may still be able to meet in Durban during the period mentioned in my last letter.

My best wishes to you both for an enjoyable and restful holiday.

Yours sincerely,

David
