Dear David,

Thanks for your letter of March 12 and the letter from Miss Williams of March 11.

I am quite happy with the title HOFMEYR by ALAN PATON. Scribner's, as you say, must decide for themselves. Scribner himself has suggested "something like 'The Odeal of South African Liberalism'". I hope it will be something not like that.

I was naturally pleased to see your comments on the last pages of the MS. Also Horak's. If there had been time, I would have liked Horak to read the MS. Perhaps you will still consider this possibility. If there are any mistakes left I think he will find them.

In regard to 'William' or 'Williams' Street, I am sure this could be checked by reference to a Pretoria directory. Unfortunately I haven't one.

Looking forward to your next list,

Yours sincerely,

P.S. Charles Scribner asks me to remind you about the galleys which he wants as soon as possible.
