Dear David,

I enclose eight pages of more or less minor corrections made on a final re-reading of the biography. You will note that in chapters XX, XXII, and XXXI there are questions which I hope you will answer for me.

I have heard from Scribner's and the book is too long for them as I expected it might be. Charlie Scribner's idea is to wait for your proofs and to cut the book to about half. I have accepted this suggestion but would nevertheless like to have your opinion.

I enclose a cheque for R11.63 for air freight and revenue stamp paid out by you.

Yours sincerely,
