Dear Rene,

I am sending today, under separate cover two sets of chapters I, II, and III, which replace chapters I - VII. You will note in the typescript you got from Barn that chapter V is missing because I did not give it to him as I was going to rewrite it. I am also sending you two sets of chapters XLI, XLII, and XLIII. Will you please let Jahn Cope have a complete set of each of these series, and tell him that the early chapters (I - VII), which he criticised have now been rewritten, and I shall be glad to have his opinion of them.

I have made some alterations in various chapters, but am not sending these, as they are on loose sheets and might easily get mislaid.

Now will you or John Cope - whoever finishes first - send one complete set to Leo Marquard. As you know, I am nervous about sending these things through the post, so will you send them to Leo at the Oxford University Press address, (P.O. Box 1141, Cape Town), and send it registered or insured post? I would like him to get a set as soon as possible, so that he can be reading the Life before I go to Cape Town early next month. Many thanks.

I don't expect you to write me a book about the biography, but of course I do want you to send me any factual corrections and any reminiscences which the biography may bring back to you.

Thanks for your appreciation of SPONONO. Our love to you both.

Yours ever,
